

ABOUT THINK TEN MEDIA GROUP

Think Ten Media Group (TTMG) was co-founded by Ramon Hamilton and Jen Fischer. At the heart of their media company is an understanding of the pervasiveness of media and its ability to create change and shape behavior. In addition to media creation, the company maintains a commitment to education, especially for systemically excluded and institutionally oppressed communities.

CURRENT PROGRAM OFFERINGS

TTMG educational program offerings at this time include:

- Computer programming
- Video game design
- Virtual Reality (VR) development

EDUCATIONAL PARTNERSHIPS

Over the past ten years, TTMG has worked with a wide array of educational partners and programs, such as:

CONTACT: 661-295-1906 OR INFO@THINKTENMEDIAGROUP.COM

RAMON HAMILTON

FILMMAKER, VR DEVELOPER, GAME DEVELOPER

Award-Winning Filmmaker Ramon Hamilton's work has been featured by NBC, ABC, Fusion, and Vice News and at more than 50 film festivals, 65+ university campuses and by community organizations in the United States and around the world. He has released games for both Oculus and Steam and is currently the lead developer for WorldOver International's VR school. He is a gifted educator and mentor of youth. Through his work with TTMG, Ramon has taught the following subjects to youth and adults:

- filmmaking
- computer programming
- video game design
- VR development

Hamilton has had Artist Residences with LA's BEST, the largest after-school provider for the Los Angeles Unified School District, and the East Los Angeles Renaissance Academy. He was a 2016 National Black Program Consortium 360 Incubator Fellow. His pedagogical approach is student-led and project-based.

JEN FISCHER

EDUCATIONAL WRITER, CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT EXPERT

Jen Fischer is a writer, film producer and teaching artist whose films have screened across the United States and abroad. With TTMG, "The wHOLE" premiered at Amnesty International's 50th Anniversary Human Rights Conference.

She has developed curriculum for LA's BEST, the Metta Center for Nonviolence, Journeys In Film, AcadeMe and in conjunction with the Outreach Center for the Center for Middle Eastern Studies at Harvard University, where she received her M.A. and created her first short documentary. Her writing has been featured by Edutopia, Video Librarian, Ms. Magazine, Parents Magazine and others.

CONTACT: 661-295-1906 OR INFO@THINKTENMEDIAGROUP.COM